#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Good information.	6/2/2020 9:17 PM
2	Good overall. The topic, as mentioned by the speaker, is a bit arid and difficult to put into context. The speaker tried to do this but in my view he was only partially successful. Perhaps he should have drawn more attention to the take home message and summarized it again towards the end of the presentation	6/1/2020 3:39 PM
3	Excellent interesting seminar with an outstanding presenter.	6/1/2020 11:26 AM
4	It was a very well-presented topic, even if there were difficult techniques to explain, the lecture was delivered in a very understandable way. It was a pity not to be able to watch it again.	6/1/2020 5:56 AM
5	The seminar did cover a topic that will be more relevant as we get access to immunotherapy in oncology. To know Adverse Events both in people and in mouse model will be very helpful for oncologists in the field of immunotherapy-oncology.	6/1/2020 5:53 AM
6	Excellent topics and knowledgeable speaker. Fifteen+ minutes introduction to speak about none and everything, was a little bit too much. Perhaps in the future, limit the generalities about weather, times etc to 5 minutes?	6/1/2020 4:35 AM
7	What does it mean by "illustration of lecture"? Very engaging speaker	6/1/2020 4:34 AM
8	Excellent	6/1/2020 3:31 AM
